DRILLERY EFFICIENCY SCORES AGAIN

Washington, D. C., April 7, 1916.
My Dear Mr. Fuller: I began at your school at the very beginning in both shorthand and typewriting and worked up in the two branches, finally teaching shorthand for a while at the Drillery until I went to Michigan. On March 24, 1915, I passed my civil service examination in Michigan with an average of 85.20, ranking first from Michigan and fourth from the whole United States. In February, 1916, I received a temporary appointment in the Department of Agriculture, which, on April 1, materialized into a permanent one in the same department.

This, I feel, was due in a large measure to the thorough instruction which I received at the Drillery, and I recommend that school very strongly to any prospective pupil wishing to fit as a stenographer for a position either in or out of the government. Sincerely yours,

Julia R. Goodall.
